

REV. SAMUEL GREENE RECEPTION GUEST

Event Will Be Held at Calvary Baptist Church Next Mon- day Evening.

In honor of the thirty-fifth anniversary of the Rev. Samuel H. Greene as pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, a large reception at the church will be given on Monday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. During this gathering a welcome will be extended to the Rev. A. F. Anderson, who recently accepted a call to become assistant pastor of the church. The committee in charge of the reception will be headed by Dr. William T. Russell, president of the board of trustees; and W. W. Everett, vice chairman; while the remainder of the committee will consist of Dr. Charles W. Seaborn, E. G. Mason, Mrs. Charles I. Corby, Mrs. G. W. Harlan, Arthur Copeland, Mrs. F. W. Hoadley, and Mrs. J. H. J. Yule, all of whom are trustees.

A brotherhood banquet will be given in honor of Dr. Greene in the Sunday school building on the evening of December 11. An informal reception will take place at 6:30 o'clock. Dr. Mitchell Carroll, chairman of the banquet committee, will act as toastmaster.

An elaborate souvenir program is being prepared for the occasion. Nearly 1,000 members and friends of the Calvary church are expected to attend. A number of prominent clergymen and others outside of Washington are expected to attend.

In the beginning Calvary church was a branch of the old E Street Baptist Church, now known as Temple Church with the Rev. J. J. Muir as pastor. The position occupied by Calvary church among the Baptists of Washington will be discussed by Dr. Shailer Mathews, dean of the divinity school of the University of Chicago, and president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Justice Charles E. Hughes, of the United States Supreme Court, will speak on the past work of Calvary church, and former Gov. Joseph W. Folk, chief counsel of the Interstate Commerce Commission, will deal with the church's present activities. Dr. Greene will conclude the program with "Thoughts Concerning Future Work."

Robert H. McNeil will act as secretary of the banquet committee, and the following will have charge of the sub-committees: N. S. Faucett, Charles I. Corby, Prof. Louis D. Bliss, George W. Fudd, Owen T. Collins, W. W. Everett, Arthur Copeland, William W. Greene, and Wade B. Hampton. The present membership of Calvary church is nearly 2,000, while the annual receipts and disbursements are upwards of $50,000. The membership of the Sunday school is over 1,200.

SPECIAL SERMON TO THOSE WHO ENROLLED

At the Metropolitan Baptist Church, Sixth and A streets northeast, tomorrow morning, the Rev. John Compton Ball will preach for the members enrolled in the church during his pastorate. Dr. Ball, who has been pastor of the Metropolitan church for more than eleven years, has taken in 60 new members. The present membership of the church is 640. Upon enrollment every member is presented with a copy of the New Testament, with "Life Text" written on the fly-leaf. From this inscription Dr. Ball has chosen the topic upon which he will preach, "The Life Text of God."

At the evening service Dr. Ball will tell about "The Puzzling Question at the Judgment."

WALDENIAN CHURCH PLEADING FOR AID

The National Waldensian Aid Society is sending through branches throughout the United States and Canada, an appeal for aid for the suffering people of the Waldensian Church of Italy.

Gifts amounting to $50,000 annually, have been collected by the society in Europe. Without that amount the "evangelical work of the Waldensian church must be abandoned. The money is said, and with that reduction pastors, teachers, evangelists, collectors and other families will be thrown out of employment.
